MissingKids.ca is Canada's missing children response centre. It is a central place for parents to get help and information to find their missing child. MissingKids.ca is also an educational resource for families and communities to help prevent children from going missing.

Providing support to families.

At MissingKids.ca you can:

- Register your missing child and receive support from a trained MissingKids.ca caseworker in the search for your child.
- Find information that may help you prevent your child from going missing.
- Access response plans for communities affected by a missing child so that you are better equipped to help.
- Sign up for missing child alerts in order to become a part of the search for our missing children.

Families do not need to search alone. We're here to help.
